HUNTERS, GATHERERS & WARRIORS

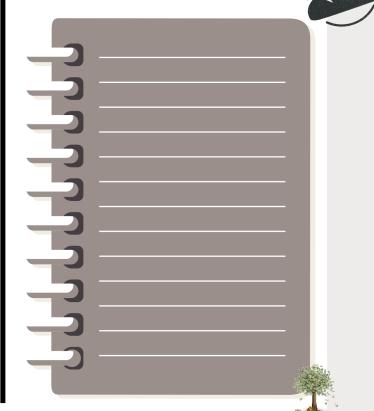

You will need the mindset of a Hunter if your mana, lucky charms, or krytonite is hidden. You will have to hunt for these things, and it will take some trial and error to figure out exactly what they are.

THE NORTH NODE

Your Mana is represented by the North Node. The North Node will tell you what energizes you and & builds a current of life force.

There is a reason the slang for money is "bread". We require money to obtain the bread we need for sustenance. We have given paper money the power of currency, the power of lifeforce.

THE SOUTH NODE

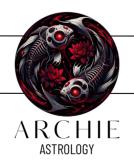

Before working in the station that contains your South Node, ask yourself: How is my North Node station looking? Am I being authentic in my North Node work? Am I feeling energized or drained? The North Node can be scary. Be brave and fill your tank.

A COMBUSTION CYCLE

Our kryptonite is represented by the South Node. It's pretty and comforting and we are drawn to it like moths to flame. But it BURNS UP our energy and our money fast. You can't get out of doing your South Node work. You can't just avoid it. Combustion is going to take place here, so you need to make sure you have an excess of Mana in your tank to burn. You need dailly routines entrenched in your NORTH Node, workstation.
